

Painting Workshops

Expressive Landscape Painting Workshop – 2 days

The landscapes around the venues I have chosen are particularly inspirational and we will spend time taking advantage of our surroundings to motivate our work.

Workshop at the Tew Centre

We will use a range of media to include inks, acrylic paints, oil pastels, soft pastels, collage, graphite, charcoal.

This is a typical programme for the two days:

Day one is designed to help you 'loosen up' with activities to develop creative and expressive mark-making.

Day two will begin with a look at the work of some contemporary abstract landscape painters including Ivon Hitchens, John Piper, Joan Eardley, Kyffin Williams, Kurt Jackson and Frank Auerbach. Their use of composition and colour, mark-making and technique can inform and inspire. During this day you will make a series of small semi-abstract landscape paintings, and you may start a larger piece.

- Plenty of paper and sketchbooks are provided and delicious light refreshments. I will provide a list of equipment to bring, if you have it.
- Please bring your own lunch.
- All venues have plenty of parking.
- Numbers are limited so contact me quickly if you would like a place.

Flower Painting Workshops

Orchids by Caroline Chappell

These are usually one day workshops designed to develop expressive confident use of colour and mark-making with acrylic paints and a variety of pastel crayons as well as charcoal and ink. The uses of gel mediums may be explored.

We will embrace experimental exercises to encourage a relaxed approach and you may find yourself drawing with your eyes closed one minute and with a chunk of charcoal on the end of a stick another. By the end of the day you should have several small studies and a larger painting to take home.

Work by recent workshop artists

I provide several vases full of flowers so there will be plenty of variety.

All papers will be provided as well as light refreshments...you will need to bring your own lunch.

These courses are particularly popular and book up quickly so get in touch as soon as possible if you would like a place.

Caroline Chappell

07902813527

carolinetchappell@googlemail.com